AN EVALUATED AND PRICED BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY OF ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY OF THE BEST BOOKS IN THE FIELD

BY

M. DOREAL

As Founder of an Occult Organization, the Brotherhood of the White Temple, I have had hundreds of requests to name the books which I considered to be necessary for the forming of a basic Occult Library.

The valuation given on these books has been taken from catalogues of Occult dealers issued during the past five years. They are retail prices and most of them can be secured within the range of prices noted. Many are scarce and time is required to find them.

We have duplicates of a few of these in our library and these are for sale.

Good Occult Books are constantly rising in value and a fine library is a good investment as well as a source of pleasure.

THE ORIGINS OF CHRISTIANITY

BY F.C. CONYBEARE

An epileptic Jewish visionary, writing shortly after the death of Jesus, said to the citizens of Corinth, "Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more." Already Paul had begun the construction of that Christ who finally owed little more than a name to the healer and prophet executed by the Romans.

Some sixty thousand "Lives of Jesus" have been written since the end of the Eighteenth Century, when certain German scholars began a pious effort to purify Christianity of its evident mythological accretions. Little did they suspect where their search for the historical essence of Jesus would lead.

Frederick Cornwallis Conybeare's Origins of Christianity is one of the outstanding achievements of this great historical investigation. Born a hundred years ago into a family with a tradition of distinguished scholarship, Conybeare was led, in the course of intensive travel and research devoted to Armenian studies, to his lifetime interest in Christian history and the New Testament in particular. He made many textual discoveries, one or two of scarcely less interest to his time than that of the Dead Sea Scrolls to ours.

NEWS AND VIEWS

FROM THE ROCKIES

Sunday, November 2, 1958 at 11:00 A.M., Dr. William Harth will give a metaphysical lecture. Everyone is welcome.

Sunday, November 2nd at 1:00 P.M., Neophyte Class and Healing Work under the instruction of Dr. Tully, will continue as scheduled.

Sunday, November 2nd at 3:30 P.M., Dr. Doreal will hold the November Avatar meeting for Members only.

This Sunday, both services in the morning and afternoon, were under the leadership of members of the First Minister's Class. The morning service was given by Dr. Robert Morrow whose subject was "Illumination."

Due to an emergency, Dr. Doreal was unable to give his afternoon class which was scheduled for Members only, so Members of the Ministers Class spoke on the subject of "Personal Development," and some very fine thoughts were expressed. This class was entirely impromptu, with Dr. Robert Morrow conducting the meeting. Members of the Ministers Class enjoyed this opportunity to speak briefly, on a given subject, and we became even more aware of the importance of group expression as well as individual expression in these days of change. Those participating in the meeting were Drs. Robert

Morrow, Winnie Whitby, Marguerite Pratt,
William Harth, Donald Pass, Trenton Tully, and Virginia Lester.

The 10-minute healing period was observed, as usual, from 4:20 to 4:30. As we mentioned before, this is the winter schedule for this particular healing circle in which friends and members all over the world participate. If you do not already have attunement instructions, you may write to the Brotherhood Office for this information.

ASTRO-CHEMICAL ANALYSIS

BY DOREAL

This very scientific book gives the Astro-Chemical Analysis of the twelve different chemical types according to their Astrological signs. Through chemical and spectroscopic analysis, twenty-two elements are distinguishable in the human body. One hundred persons born under each sign of the Zodiac were examined in the formulation of this analysis. The Astro-Chemical Analysis is combined with a knowledge of bio-chemistry and endocrinology and definite analysis of the type.

THE ASTRAL PLANE

69
Dr. M. Doreal

(Part Three)

Many people say, "I believe in an after life. I believe that the soul exists," but they do not know it. If you know it you are not like an old preacher friend of mine in Wichita, Kansas, many years ago, a very fine fellow who preached extensively on Heaven, of the wonderful place it was, and he was looking forward to going there, and when the time came he would take his place before the Throne of God. He became real sick and thought he was going to die and I went to visit him in the hospital, took his hand, and said, "Brother, I am so happy for you, so happy to see you here," and he looked at me a little startled and surprised and said, "I am awfully sick," and I said, "Well, you say Heaven is your home and you are going home." He said, "Yes, I know Heaven is my home but I am not home-sick." You know, he began to mend right away. I thought that was what he wanted, to go home to Heaven.

What we know can never be taken away from us. We may believe a thing and that belief may be shattered, but a person who has a number of times been able to separate the ego from the body always, from then on, knows that he is not the physieal man. He is something separate, distinct and apart.

That is one reason, and one value, not the greatest. The greatest is this, that until we are able to liberate the ego from the physical body we are bound in this material plane and we can have no experience and no concept other than that of the material. No person can know God as a spiritual thing until he has transcended the material world. In our material world we are limited in great measure by the experiences and concepts and limitations that we are subject to. It is only when we expand our consciousness into a greater and higher plane of being that we can have experiences whereby we can understand the things that are beyond the material.

If I would use the word "chair" to the average person, it is an English word, all of us here would understand at least something of what was meant, maybe not this kind of chair but we would still think of it as something similar, but suppose there was a race of people, perhaps on another world, that did not sit down, maybe they hung themselves on hooks on the wall when they got tired, if they heard someone use the word chair, they could not realize what a chair was because they could not sit down. When a person who has experienced things in the inner parts of the astral plane tries to speak of those to people who have not had that experience, the only thing they can do is use words that as nearly as possible approximate some like thing in the world.

Some people say, "God is light." That is not true. God is not light but light is one of the most intangible aspects of energy visible to man. Light is merely a symbol by which we try to approximate that which cannot be understood by the mind or by finite expression. We know this, that because man in the finite is limited to the things he knows about, the things he has seen, felt, or tasted, he can never in that state alone truly understand the nature of other planes of existence.

In the material plane, if I want to go to that door I have several ways to go but I have to transverse the space between here and there in some manner to get there. In the astral plane we are not separated by space from anything. I am here; I am there. That is all there is to it. Some people who have had astral experiences will tell you, when they desired to go a thousand miles or more away, there was not even a flash or movement and they were a thousand miles away. In the astral plane we are where we conceive ourselves to be without the necessity of transversing space through time. No time elapses; no space is transversed.

One occult teacher in Tibet said, "If I step from this plane into the fourth dimension, the astral plane, and I step out again, I will not step out in the same place unless I want to but in the whole time of doing so I have only taken two steps; one to go to the astral; one to get out of the astral. I have taken only two steps, one to the place where I could step back."

The same is true of the space that lies between the planets. We know that astronomers have discovered many errors in their calculations of movements of the planets. They do not even know much about the moon which is supposed to be 250,000 miles from the earth. Yet, it was not too long ago that an astronomer noticed what looked like a flock of birds settle down on the moon. Some had wings approximately 250 miles wide. Not long ago they saw a ship cross the moon. One astronomer, a few years ago, saw a whole crowd of winged beings close to the sun. That lasted at least three nights and they appeared like human figures. How do we know that our perspective of the sun and moon is correct? How do we know that they are as large or far away or even separated by space? Perhaps, they are not separated by space but by dimension and space-travel from world to world lies not in the physical but in being able to move from one dimension to another. There is a fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth dimension, all known to the one who has delved deeply into the occult.

LEAD ME TO THE LIGHT OF GOD

BY DOREAL

How many of us have in a state of utter dejection cried out in anguish: "Oh, Heavenly Father, Lead me to the Light!" Only when the current of Life's stream becomes turbulent and we are caught in the rip tide do we stop short and turn our thoughts to the Higher. Unwittingly we call upon a greater Father in the high heavens. Why? Because our consciousness - the very essence of our existence - knows that in "Our Father" there is light. And in that light no heartaches, no tribulations, no agony. The consciousness within us - the very fibre of our being has never lost sight of the cord that binds it to its home - its Father-Mother. It knows that its birthright is the knowing of all things - the freedom from all bondage.

But, alas, we - the reasonable, thinking, intellectual human beings have lost awareness of our "home." Bound by our angers, hates, fears, and other emotions, we neglect to let the ray of Divine kindness, Divine love, Divine wisdom, penetrate our being. And thus make it ever harder for the Divine spark to break through the net of darkness that veils it from our view.

Thus our consciousness cries out in diverse ways, always seeking escape. Escape not outward, but inward. And the question arises: But how can we find this freedom? The answer must need be: By ever looking inward. For within our material form is the dwelling place of the immaterial consciousness. Intangible though it be, it is that which gives us life - it is our life. So seek ye ever inward - constantly - patiently - closing out all thoughts of the outer self. And one day from within the recesses of the mind will arise an intuition that will lead you to your inner self. And when this happens, lose yourself in it. Then will you be able to perceive the utter calmness - the absolute quietude of your soul - your soul undaunted by the outer cares of the mundane.

Then will you be humbly grateful that your soul cried out for release from emotions and whipping thoughts, driving you into this great sea of tranquility. - Because then will emotions be overshadowed by thought - thought overshadowed by reason - and reason slowly giving way to absorption by that inner self to be finally engulfed by the One.

And once you have found your God-Self - then not only have you been led to the Light, but you are truly that LIGHT!
